REVIEWING PACKER HISTORY

FOUNDING — The Packers began in 1919 as a "scrub" team of former Green Bay High School stars organized by Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau, who had played at Notre Dame. A war-time plant, The Indian Packing Company, agreed to give Curly $500 for uniforms if they called their team the Packers. The Packing company folded up after World War I but the Packers are now in their 40th season of professional football.

EARLY DAYS — That first season the team won 10 games and lost only one against other teams from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fence or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise in the new national pro-football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight, and at the end of the season it had to be forefeited. This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundreth of an inch short of that required in the policy. Another storm late in the season when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Eskimos, however, proved the founding of the modern community corporation. A. B. Turnbull, general manager of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, told the Packers to play anyway. He then went out and helped organize the businessmen of Green Bay in the support of the team, and the Green Bay Football Corporation was formed.

THE IRON MAN ERA — With good financial backing, Lambeau began to pick up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who were going to turn out to be "greats." And in 1929 Green Bay won the national professional football championship. They repeated in 1930 and 1931 with a team featuring such all-time pro greats as Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny Blood, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Clarke Hinkle, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. Many games 12 to 13 players would go for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD — Trouble flared again soon afterward. A fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict, and the insurance company went out of business. The Packers went into receivership, were just about to fold when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club. About this time a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. On his first play in professional ball against the Chicago Bears, he took a pass from Arnie Herber and went 94 yards for the only score of the game. With Herber and Cecil Isbell pitching and Hutson catching anything they threw at him despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944, and all during the Hutson era they always finished in the first division.

RONZANI REGIME — After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again went into a decline. The disastrous pro football war brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. In the midst of it Lambeau resigned to take a position as head coach of the Chicago Cardinals. Then began another major reorganization and rebuilding effort with Gene Ronzani of the Bears hired as head coach. Over $125,000 was raised in a giant stock sale all over the state. Ronzani's teams improved each of the first three seasons until 1952. The Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the last weeks of the season. In 1953 the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining on the schedule. Assistant coaches Hugh Devore and Ray McLean took the team to the Pacific Coast for the final two games.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER — The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne C. Lewellen, all-time Packer great, attorney and business man, as general manager. Reaching into college ranks for a head coach was the next step in the re-building plans and Lisle W. Blackbourn, a native Wisconsinite, and Coach of Marquette University, was signed to a contract. During the four year Blackbourn regime the Packers won 17 while losing 31.

McLEAN MOVES UP — Likeable Ray "Scooter" McLean moves up from an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean's first descision as head coach was to bring the team back to Green Bay to train—a popular move for fans and players alike. Another popular move was the addition of such outstanding stars as Steve Meilinger J. D. Kimmel, Len Ford and Ray Krouse through trades. Veteran coaches Ray Richards and Nick Skorich were hired to assist McLean in getting the Packers back on the winning trail.

VERNE C. LEWELLEN — General Manager

Verne C. Lewellen

An all-time Packer great, Verne C. Lewellen, is directing the Green Bay Packers for the fifth season as its first General Manager. Lewellen was a spark plug in the backfield that saw Green Bay sweep to three straight World Championships in 1929, 1930 and 1931.

He was a fine running halfback, a great defensive player, but was particularly noted for his punting. Before joining the Packers he was an All-Conference halfback and baseball pitcher at Nebraska and after graduation tried out with the Pittsburgh Pirates as a pitcher before reporting to Green Bay in 1924.

A lawyer by profession, he was elected District Attorney of Brown County while still active in football and served two terms. He continued his law practice and entered the employ of Standard Oil Company where he was personnel supervisor and later tax supervisor.

Born in Garland, Nebraska, Lewellen is a widower and has three children, two sons and a daughter.

Ray Richards Floyd "Breezy" Reid

Jack Morton Ray "Scooter" McLean Nick Skorich

RAY "Scooter" McLEAN — Head Coach

McLean moves up to the head coaching position of the Packers after seven years as an outstanding assistant under Gene Ronzani for three seasons and Lisle Blackbourn for four. Prior to joining the Packers McLean was head coach at Lewis College in Lockport, Illinois, from 1948 to 1950. His playing career with the Bears was over a span of eight years during which time the Bears came through with four championship teams.

RAY RICHARDS — Defensive Coach

Richards comes to the Packers from the head coaching job of the Chicago Cardinals. Ray began his coaching career in 1936 as player coach of the Los Angeles Bulldogs. He went back to college in 1938-1947 as line coach at U.C.L.A. He moved to Pepperdine College as line coach in 1948 and head coach the following two years. In 1951-1952 he was line coach for the Los Angeles Rams and in 1953 as an assistant with Baltimore. Richards joined the Cardinals as an assistant in 1954, then was made head coach for the next three seasons.

NICK SKORICH — Offensive Line Coach

Skorich comes to the Packers from an assistant coaching job with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1954 through 1957. He played pro ball with the Steelers in 1946, 1947 and 1948. When injuries encouraged Nick's retiremnt after the 1948 season he became head coach of Central Catholic High School in Pittsburgh from 1949 through 1952. After successful high school coaching, Skorich moved on the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute's staff. He returned to the Steelers under Walt Kiesling in 1954.

JACK MORTON — Defensive Line Coach

Jack was the only holdover coach from the 1957 staff. Morton's coaching experience includes two years (1951-1952) at Maryland Heights High School in Missouri, line coach at DePauw University (1952-1955) and head coach at Toledo University (1956-1957) Morton was a former All-Big Six end from Missouri University and played professionally with the Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills.

FLOYD "Breezy" REID — Backfield Coach

"Breezy" is beginning his coaching career as backfield coach of the Packers. Reid was drafted by the Chicago Bears in 1950. He joined the Packers that same year and had been a regular left halfback with the Packers for seven seasons. Before coming to the Packers in 1952, Breezy was one of the University of Georgia's All-Time great halfbacks.
